Lesley Paterson

BEMER Sports Ambassador | Five-Time Off-Road Triathlon World Champion

“As a professional triathlete, my body is subject to enormous stress because I swim, bike, and run for over 30 hours every week. Having quality recovery is the only way I can sustain this lifestyle and keep my immune system from crashing. My BEMER is a critical tool in my recovery protocol — it not only improves my blood flow, it also stimulates my muscles to perform to the highest capacity. I take it with me everywhere.”

Optimize Your Performance in Just Eight Minutes

Performance and recovery are an essential part of daily life for all athletes. The best part about BEMER is that it's so easy to use. In just eight minutes, twice a day, the patented BEMER signal will stimulate your cells and muscles for better health and wellness. Maximize your training and recovery at home or on the road with the BEMER Pro-Set (GO Edition).

BEMER Can Enhance:

- Nutrient and Oxygen Delivery
- Local Blood Flow
- Waste Removal
- Muscle Conditioning
- Performance
- Physical Fitness
- Muscular Strength
- Endurance and Energy
- Vitality and Well-Being

Elevate Your Performance | Shorten Your Recovery Time

Rigorous training can be brutal on the body, making it difficult to recover and attain peak athletic performance. BEMER technology enhances local blood flow which results in enhanced muscle conditioning, overall physical fitness, performance and endurance. Top level athletes use BEMER to take their competitive edge to new heights and extend longevity in their sport.

What Professional Athletes Say

Ben Garland | NFL Offensive Guard - San Francisco 49ers

“My job is physically demanding every single day between playing on the field and training in the gym and using BEMER helps me recover quickly and be game-ready each week.”

Denise Mueller-Korenek | Professional Cyclist & 2-time Guinness World Book Record Holder

“I use my BEMER on specific programs to help give me maximum performance and recovery. The circulation benefits of the BEMER help me go above and beyond in my training.”

Tyson McGuffin | Pickleball 4x National Champion

“Whether it’s working out in the gym, running a 6-hour camp, or playing an 8-hour tournament, I’ve seen a huge difference in my overall recovery—I feel like the improved blood [flow] allows me to be fresh the next day.”
